LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—The county grand jury is ready to take action against Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles, following three months investigation of his conduct of office. It was announced here tonight by Charles L. Elmendorf, foreman of the grand jury.

"We have completed our investigation and will ask the attorney-gen-

"We, the grand jury of the county of Los Angeles, desire to make the following partial report to wit:

"That there have been and are matters pending before the grand jury of Los Angeles county, in which the district attorney's office and Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney of the county of Los Angeles is an interested party. We urgently recommend and request that necessary steps be taken to have the attorney-general of the state of California employ special counsel for the purposes of investigation and prosecution of the above matters as provided by law."

Foreman Edmunds made these statements tonight following the aring with Superior Judge Embrey A. Reavie here today of a partial report which revealed that matters were pending before the grand jury which prompted an urgent recommendation that the attorney-general be asked to employ special counsel for the purpose of prosecution of these matters.

Adopt Report.

This court move was followed by Foreman Elmdorff directing County Council Hill to make public a report to the grand jury by a special committee which conducted the investigation which was the subject of

"Total expenditures for 18 months from the secret service funds for which no vouchers whatsoever have been filed total $54,369.52.

"Within these 18 months felony complaints filed numbered 25, 15

This number, 1,476 were held to answer, and of these 674 pleaded guilty. Two hundred and four persons were tried before a jury, 70 found not guilty, 124 found guilty. The amazing number of persons charged with felonies who are not punished shows conclusively one of two things, either a tremendous number of guilty felons are turned loose, or the wholesale branding as felons of innocent persons. Numerous criminal complaints charging persons with embezzlement; passing fictitious checks and forgery reveal that a cash settlement is made, and cases dropped." In short, the district attorney's office is being used as a collection agency."

Numerous cases testified to before the special committee concerning alleged activities of Woolwine are recited in the committee report, which concludes as follows: "Your committee feels that only the surface has been scratched in the investigation of this, the chief law enforcement official of Los Angeles county and we urge the

that this grand jury take the necessary steps to call in the attorney-general to make a complete and thorough investigation of the district attorney's office of Los Angeles county in or-

Arrest Suspects in Brakeman's Death

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30.—Four Mexicans were arrested at Galt early today suspected of complicity in the killing of E. E. Moore, head brakeman on a Southern Pacific freight train en route from Roseville to Stockton.

Moore, according to the stories of three men who notified the train crew, discovered a group of six Mexicans in a gondola car, and ordered them to leave the train. Upon their refusal, Moore, the other men, said, drew a pistol and fired over the heads of the six. A shot in return

The men under arrest gave the names of Roque Estrada, G. Marquez, Ghordo Maz and Antonio Serrano.

Raymond McGee, George Millroe and T. A. Senburg were the men who declared they saw the shooting.

TO VISIT COAST
CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Twenty-four members of the Chicago city council leave today on a trip to a number of western and southern cities to study high costs, rents and markets. Among the cities visited will be Vancouver, Wash.; Portland, Ore.; San Francisco, Los Angeles, El Paso and New Orleans. The information gained will be used in efforts to reduce living costs here.

UNION'S IRON HAND ON OIL OPERATIONS

direct observation of the correspondent last Friday evening at Taft. Walking down the principal business street, just two blocks away from the union headquarters, the writer encountered a growing crowd. The center of interest was a member of the law and order guard and a man sitting in the front seat of a stage which had just pulled in from the south.

It was under suspicion but refused absolutely to leave his seat because he intended leaving on this same stage, he said. Then pressure, mostly moral and verbal, got the physical man into the front of the car for the avowed purpose of an examination.

Before the crowd the man claimed to be a good union man and just incidentally passing through the strike zone. But he carried no "due" card, the piece of paste-board recognition of the payment of dues into the union local. He also claimed he was about broke.

Unable to leave, the newcomer, guarded on all sides, was taken to the corner toward the strike headquarters, he passed but temporarily out of the ken of the writer. Next morning he was discovered by the writer, who was suspicious at the world because of his treatment and because he was unable to get out of town, his ticket, which he had previously bought, was now no good because his stage had gone on the night before.

With the virtual impunity of the patrol wrought by the abandonment of the state pressure, the two challenges against the union situation became even more tense. Throughout the strike district the previous tactics of the men changed.

On every hand the strikers began to assert the belief that they were beaten but, like Americans, they lost none of the spirit of their morale and determined to go down fighting. They intended to stick it out to the last and their final hope for salvation lay in the fact that the "tie up" of the fields as tight as possible.

One striker in Taft, a veteran of many years' experience in the oil business, expressed his opinion in this way: "Well, we may be beaten but we'll make the operators lose as much in dividends as it would have cost them to meet us half way. Before we were in the oil business, now I'm fighting for my job and the old woman and the kids."

With the dawn of the third week of the strike the operators grew impatient. They felt that the light was to degenerate into a long drawn-out battle, in which the operators millions and times were the potential winners. The strikers' mutiny began to appear.

Even Coalinga, previously an exceedingly orderly center, began to be the center of the stage of growing disorder. The strikers, with the attack of last Wednesday evening, by an armed force on the water plant of the Pacific Oil company, began to show their true colors. The strikers demanded that the plant be closed down by 1 o'clock the following morning under threat that they would close it down. Although the strikers were not reaching the scene just as the last machine of the strikers was pulling away into the darkness, the plant is still running and no further trouble has developed.

Handicapped, with a half dozen or more calls for help, the strikers are in a weak position. Sheriff Jones asserts that his hands are tied, that he and his force of a half dozen experienced deputies are "handicapped" and "rendered" not powerful enough to handle the strikers' riotous behavior because of a set of remarkable circumstances.

The sheriff asserts his belief that he and his staff are constantly under surveillance, that his car never leaves the Fox hotel, where he is stopping, but what signals are flashed. Soon he discovers that a car is on his trail and the word of his approach is flashed miles ahead of him.

As a sample he cites the return of some of his deputies, accompanied by Deputy District Attorney Felix Cummings, from Fresno the other evening in a sheriff's department car which had not been used in the strike zone before.

According to the occupants of the car, as soon as the first union patrol was reached a man stopped into the road with a pocket flashlight and challenged them. They refused to halt and at the next post a searchlight from an automobile, parked alongside the road and darkened, flashed over them.

Mysterious signals by light then flashed between this second post and another point on a hill, probably two miles away. As the sheriff's car reached that point other lights began to wink and twinkle at various points.

Then the officers discovered that their car was being followed. They put on more speed, the pursuer followed suit and soon the chase was on at a rate of 45 miles an hour. At a certain post the first car dropped out and the pursuer was taken up by a second car.

Reaching the city limits of Coalinga, the officers discovered that a third car was awaiting them at that point. It unceremoniously took up the chase. But the sheriff's car, driven by Deputy Claude Fay, began a veritable dance through Coalinga, dodging into side streets, suddenly turning at alleys and finally three off the pursuers.

This same system of light signals and other contrivances, not known to the officers, but minus the chase is used, they declare, when they answer calls at night. On Wednesday evening in answering the call to the Pacific company water plant Motorcycle Officer Laird, who headed the official party at a lead of some two miles, signalled with his lights to the sheriff. This seemed to act as an alarm for immediately other lights began to flash.

The sheriff, in checking up the story of the raid with the eight company men in the water station, found that approximately a minute or two after Laird's signal had been intercepted one of the raiding party, who had probably been left outside as a lookout, came rushing in and called, "Come on, fellows, time's up."

The party immediately made hasty preparations to leave. In many towns of the strike zone, wireless phone stations have been installed and erected by the strikers. These are used as a means of ready, instant and secret communication between the larger patrols and the various towns.

One strike official, commander of the law and order group at Maricopa and a former sergeant of marines, told newspapermen at Bakersfield last week that he had recruited and was drilling a machine gun battalion, that a gun was available for use, and that he would accept an offer made to him of an airplane.

The strikers have installed their own courts and are vigorously punishing their men by fines and other penalties. But this system has evoked some criticism from the constituted authorities because of the creation of a "judiciary" outside of the courts of the state.

In Coalinga during the past week three arrests have been made for alleged violence. At Norton and Pat Goward, two well known characters of the fields, the former supposed to have been a professional pugilist at one time, are accused of a violent attack on R. A. Murray and wife. Murray is one of the few men who remained at work on the lease of the Associated company.

Murray, who is crippled in one foot, was shopping with his wife. When they came out of the door of the grocery, their arms filled with bundles, Murray, pummeling him unmercifully. During the fight Murray was also kicked in the face.

Mrs. Murray then got into action, unlimbering a bayonet knife and striking her husband's assailant. One of the men is then alleged to have grabbed her, choking her to the neck.

Here are a few other cases that have come to the attention of the officials recently:

Question Man—A young man, who turned out to be a barber and a union member, was in Coalinga to meet his fiancée. While he was registering at a hotel a man followed him in and interrogated him. The stranger promised to show up later at the union headquarters to clear his skirts of suspicion. Later, he was taken under guard to the headquarters and through a union barber of the town, established his identity.

Two young mechanics came over from the coast, bound to Fresno to do some work. They were quizzed by the union men and asked for some official pass from him. This he refused, believing they would be safe. The sheriff and his deputies shortly after this "let out" the two young men, who were returning to their homes.

On their return they found a large crowd gathered in front of the hotel where the two mechanics the center of both attraction and suspicion. The crowd, some of whom were returning to the coast, was gathered there, the mechanics, wishing some protection, asked the privilege of following the car of a deputy who was returning to the coast. This was granted, but at the city limits a car took up the pursuit, and kept on the trail until such a time as they were apparently satisfied that the men were not going to remain in the field.

Hardly a night passes but that the sheriff is informed that bands of men have called at certain lease pits, through argument and some times intimidation and threats, to get the men who remained loyal to the companies to leave the job.

On several occasions men are reported to have been badly removed from the leases. Reports on these cases have been made to the sheriff but no definite evidence has been uncovered as to the identity of the kidnappers.

Women in tears have called on the officers and pleaded pitifully for protection for their husbands, who have remained loyal to the company by refusing to go out on strike. While the reporter was talking with Sheriff Jones on Thursday one of these calls came in, the frantic wife stating there were four men hanging around her home and had threatened her.

LIMIT PEACE TREATY DEBATE

One Hour Given Each
Senator

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—An agreement was reached by the Senate late today to impose a debate time limit of one hour on each senator in consideration of the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary beginning October 14 in order to expedite a vote on ratification. Under the agreement it is expected that the vote will be reached October 14 or 15.

The original plan for an agreement to vote on October 14 was abandoned after Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, and Senator Underhill, the Democratic leader, had found that unanimous consent would not be given for a specific day on which to take final action.

Leaders tonight expressed the opinion that the debate would not be protracted after the hour rule goes into effect. The agreement also provides that senators shall be limited to ten minutes for consideration of reservations.

The voting agreement was held up temporarily and almost rejected today by managers of the anti-peace bill, who, fearing this measure might be introduced, forced Senator Lodge to delay presenting the agreement.

To "beat up" her husband. A guard was sent out and for one evening, at least, the husband and father escaped home without an altercation.

In the face of the denigration by officers that not a strikebreaker is in the Coalinga district, the ranks of the strikers have been augmented during the past ten days with reinforcements from the Kern county field. The explanation is that it is easier to take care of these men in the Coalinga district than in the lower fields, where the number of strikers is so great as to form a real problem for their support by the union.

Outcome Doubtful—These are a few of the facts and impressions that have come to the attention of the chronicler in trips through the strike zone. They are given for what they are worth, for few, if any, formal complaints will be made because the strikers' way of handling the situation undoubtedly has the tacit approval of virtually every person, be he union member or just plain citizen in the oil fields. For the victory of the men, they feel, is their victory. A higher wage scale means more money in circulation, the victory of the men whom they know personally by the hundreds, also is a matter of genuine sentiment.

No one knows. But seemingly it will require a near-miracle to bring the controversy, damaging to the industry and to the whole valley and damaging to the oil industry, to an end before months have passed.

There are many persons, fully cognizant with the whole situation, who believe that the plan of the operators is for an indefinite shut-down, carrying on only emergency work such as the saving of certain wells from infiltration of water.

In other words, it will be a war of attrition with the chances for victory favoring the side which has the most money and resources. The strikers claim they have a $400,000 fund from which they have just begun paying benefits amounting to $10 a week for single men and $16 a week for married men, and an income from supporting labor organizations of about $4,000 a week.

The age is now over in sight and the outcome is in the laps of the gods.

OKDALE, Sept. 30.—The small claims court is now outdoing the regular justice court as a place of popularity. Five new cases were filed this week before Judge Wilkinson, all for small amounts.

STATE HIT BY RAIN STORM

Large Section Is Flooded
Near Yuma

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Rain was general today throughout southern California, with 35 of an inch falling in Los Angeles, and heavy precipitation reported southward according to weather bureau figures. At Needles, Cal., the rain record today was 1.70 inches and at Yuma, Ariz., 1.58 inches.

More rain tomorrow is forecast.

BRAWLEY, Sept. 30.—A cloudburst

in the Chocolate mountains in the southeastern corner of California flooded a large section between Niland and Yuma, and made necessary diversion of several Southern Pacific mainline trains over the Imperial Valley.

Torrents sweeping down ordinarily dry beds, channelled by cloudbursts in previous years caused several ranchmen which, however, were quickly repaired when the waters rapidly subsided.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 30.—A rain which broke all September records for 5 years in this city descended today, the total at five p. m. being 1.10 inches. The nearest September rainfall record here was in September, 1880, when the total for the month was less than two thirds of an inch.

The local weather bureau predicted more showers for tomorrow.

TONG WITNESS NOW CHARGED WITH PERJURY

District Attorney Files Complaint Against
Hung Jick
Second to Be Brought in Connection With Prosecution

A complaint charging Hung Jick, a defense witness, with perjury in connection with the trial of Lee Yick, convicted of murder in the first degree for having given the orders to kill Fook Kee here on the evening of June 7, was sworn out yesterday by District Attorney B. W. Gearhart after a study of transcripts of testimony in the case. This is the second perjury charge to be placed in the trial of Chinese for the Fook Kee murder. The other was Frederick V. Cogshall, a defense witness in the "Wong Toy case."

When Wong Toy was brought into court to testify for murder on July 5, he presented an affidavit asking for a continuance. In this affidavit he stated that it was necessary for him to locate several witnesses who would testify that Toy was in the Suiy On clubrooms at 1913 China Alley during and after the shooting of Kee. Among these witnesses was included the name of Jick.

At the trial of Lee Yick, Jick was called to the witness stand. He testified that he was at 1009 1/2 China Alley at the time Lee Nan was stabbed and during the shooting. He testified that he followed Yick around on that evening, that he did not hear Yick give any orders for the killing of any Bing Kong men, and that they played cards in 1009 1/2 China Alley all evening.

District Attorney Gearhart confronted Jick with two witnesses, asking him if he was not at 815 China Alley from 8:15 p. m. until after the shooting on June 7. Jick denied the allegation. Gearhart stated last night that he has located at least six witnesses who can testify that Jick was in 815 China Alley on that evening playing cards. Two of these witnesses were in the game and the others were lounging about the rooms.

Jick has not yet been apprehended by the police but his whereabouts are known to them. His arrest is expected at any time.

Cogshall, the Toy case witness, is now out on bail waiting the filing of information in the superior court. Gearhart stated that with the cases practically cleaned up, the prosecutions of those men will be undertaken in a short time.

Two Couples Wed By Judge Smith

Four people were married yesterday by the "marrying" Justice of the Peace, George W. Smith. The last couple made the thirty-eighth marriage performed by the Justice in September.

Miss Evelyn Parkinson, 26, member of the Fresno District Fair theatrical troupe, became the bride of Joseph H. Davies, a Fresno, yesterday morning. The couple plan to live in San Francisco.

Miss Maria R. Sanchez, 25, and Pablo Gutierrez, 28, were married yesterday afternoon. Both bride and groom are Fresno residents.

France to Prosecute Principals in Duels

PARIS, Sept. 30.—(By The Associated Press).—The ministry of justice has sent a circular to the public prosecutors in all the departments in France ordering them to take action against all the principals and accomplices in duels which result in death or wounds. The ministry demands that severe penalties be inflicted.

The circulars say that no acts of violence against persons can be tolerated when perpetrated, minutes regulated and surrounded by noisy publicity, which it declares should be most severely repressed. The message points out that the war cost too much blood and too many millions to allow the number to be increased on the pretext of settling private quarrels. It recalls that the highest court always has ruled that the articles of the code referring to homicide and that the seconds in such meetings are equally as liable as the principals to prosecution as accomplices.

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—Latest estimates fix the material damage resulting from the recent explosion at the Baulische Automobile Company plant at Oppau at one billion marks.

HUNGARIANS REGAIN TERRITORY AS JUGO-SLAVS LEAVE BARANYA

Gen. F. M. L. Sosa, commander-in-chief of the Hungarian west army, leading his troops in triumphant procession through the city of Pecs on march into province of Baranya, re stored to them.

Baranya is once more under Hungarian rule, and great is the rejoicing in Hungary. Contingent upon the ratification of the peace of Trianon by the Hungarian parliament, two of its territorial clauses were to be executed last month. One of them provided for the return to Hungary of the city of Baja and the county of Baranya, which since 1918 has been occupied by Jugoslavia. The Magyar inhabitants of this region protested against being incorporated in Horthy's Hungary and organized an autonomous administration under Horthy's regime fled to Jugoslavia territory to escape persecution. The decision was made a subject of national rejoicing, not only in the recovered province, but in Budapest, the capital of Hungary. The Pecs mining district, about the city of Pecs, had been originally handed over temporarily to the Jugoslav government in order to insure the annual delivery for a period of five years of a given quantity of steam coal from the left on the night before. Several Pecs mines.

WOMAN, COW ARE EXCLUDED

Not To Have Part In Celebration

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Mrs. O'Leary and her celebrated cow will have no part in the observance of the centennial of the Chicago fire, to be held here Oct. 2-15. It was discussed today. The reason being that a department shows that both Mrs. O'Leary and the cow had retired an hour before the fire started, and had nothing to do with starting the blaze, although it did start in the O'Leary cowshed.

These records show that there was a rumor at the time that neighbors had slipped into the barn to milk the cow for milk, for an over-stew or a milk punch, and another that a bunch of boys from the neighborhood were smoking in the barn.

A broken lamp was found in the ruins of the barn the day after the fire. This gave rise to the report now became a legend, that Mrs. O'Leary had gone to the barn in the evening carrying a lamp and that the cow, pushed at being disturbed, had kicked her mistress, who dropped the lamp, and the big domes were lit.

The fire department investigators learned that Mrs. O'Leary had a sore foot on the day of the fire and had retired at 8:30 that evening. It was deemed unlikely that she would have arisen and come to the barn after the cows were all done, especially with a sore foot, hence she was absolved from blame. But the popular rumor cannot be official records, and the thing best remembered about the great disaster are Mrs. O'Leary and her cow.

Two men who later headed the Chicago fire department were members of the first engine company, No. 6, to arrive at the fire. They were William Musham, who was foreman of the company, and John Campion, assistant foreman.

Begin Hearing On Shippey Divorce

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 29.—Hearing was begun today in the circuit court here of the divorce suit of Mrs. Mary Shippey against her husband, Lee Shippey, former newspaper man and overseas welfare worker during the war. Mrs. Shippey was in court and testified. Shippey was not present, but was represented by Otto P. Higgins, an attorney, who was a war correspondent for a local newspaper during the war, and who knew Shippey overseas.

Man Tells Police Three Robbed Him

Three men robbed Fred Day of $100 at 1147 J street Thursday night, according to a police report. Day, 40, to several drinks last night he went to sleep in the J street room, waking up yesterday with a broken nose, two black eyes and 770 missing. The theft was investigated by Officer John Wortham, Jr. County Traffic Officer John Wortham reported the theft of a 1918 Ford from his automobile while it was parked in front of a local high school.

SAYS ARMENIANS ARE NOT KNOWN BY AMERICANS

Editor Declares Is Reason For Race Prejudice
Arshag Mahdesian Is Now Visitor In Fresno

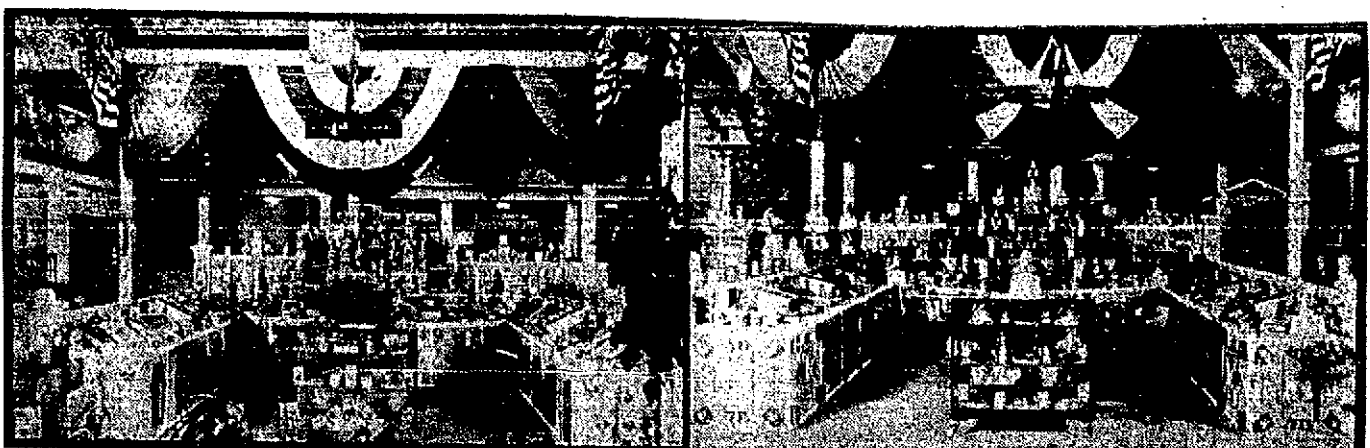

"It seems that Americans are not friendly toward Armenians. I think the reason is that they do not know Armenians. Robert Burns once said he hated a man because he did not know him. This I think explains the attitude of Americans. If they came in closer touch with Armenians they would have more respect for them intellectually as well as counter-intellectually."

This was the statement yesterday of Arshag Mahdesian, editor and publisher of The New Armenia, published in New York, in the interests of Armenians, in the English language. Mahdesian is visiting friends in Fresno.

This is the Armenian editor's first trip to California, and he found glowing terms with which to describe his impressions of the state. "The Armenians have been very prosperous," said Mahdesian. "They really admire Americans, and I am very glad, as it is only admiration that will inspire people to emulate the virtues of those with whom they live. I don't think the Armenians would come to this country if they did not like Americans. The enterprising spirit of America is a most inspiring thing, and the Armenians had the same spirit in Armenia. There is prosperity and a ray of civilization in the Near East it is due to the efforts of the Armenians—and we must not forget to mention the Greeks."

The Armenians were the first

Farm Loan Branch For San Joaquin

At a meeting of more than 100 members of the community farm center at San Joaquin it was voted to establish a farm loan branch there. Application for appropriation has been made to the Berkeley office.

It was also planned to establish a boys' and girls' agricultural club. Twenty members have signed their intentions of joining. Each member will be given a pure-bred pig by Pete Rusconi, a member of the center, to begin their club with.

people to adopt Christianity as the state religion. Armenia became a Christian state in 300 A. D. and it was ten years later than Emperor Constantine had Christianity adopted as the state religion. The persecution of Armenians has been because of their Christianity, surrounded as they were by Mohammedans or Persian like worshippers of the sun.

Armenia has a mission in the Near East, according to the Armenian editor, who declares that American moral influence is necessary for the solution of Near East questions. European politicians, he says, claim that as the United States did not declare war on Turkey, the United States has nothing to say as to the independence of Armenia.

"Yet I think that as America helped win the war, she has as much to say as any other power. Some claim that intervention by the United States might mean sending soldiers to the Near East, but I do not think so. It is not the lack of soldiers, but the lack of principles on the part of the Allies that allows the Turk to defy the terms of the peace treaty."

Married One Day Then Separate; She Asks For Divorce

A marriage that lasted but one day before a separation, is cited in a divorce action brought yesterday in the superior court by Alice against George F. Shannon in which cruelty is charged.

According to the complaint, the couple were married in Los Angeles on August 8 of this year. The plaintiff, on the following day, the complaint alleges, refused to sustain the marriage, stating that his family disapproved of the union.

Shannon then asked his wife, it is said, if she would come to Fresno to remain here until he met her. She complied, taking $10 for expenses until her husband arrived. Her husband later went to Selma where his parents reside, the complaint states, but refused to come in Fresno to his wife.

Although she has communicated with him several times at Selma, Mrs. Shannon states that her husband has refused to come to her and see her. She states that her husband has property valued at $75,000 but that he would not contribute anything to her support, making it necessary for her to borrow money from friends.

Mrs. Shannon also alleges that she was in Arizona at the time Shannon requested her to marry him. In order to get to Los Angeles, she states, she borrowed $100 from a friend, intending to return it after her marriage. She states that her husband gave her a check for the sum which she forwarded to her friend. Her husband later stopped payment on the check and it was necessary for her to borrow money to repay the amount.

The suit was filed by Lopez and Lovejoy for Mrs. Shannon and was assigned to Judge Strother for trial.

Many Cases Heard Before Judge Briggs

One man was held to answer, one case set for preliminary hearing this morning, and two other cases originally scheduled for hearing yesterday, continued to next, was by Police Judge Herbert P. Briggs yesterday.

E. G. Herbert was bound over to the superior court on three charges of issuing checks with the intent to defraud. He was arrested Saturday night after police say he had passed a dozen worthless checks in this city.

Jack Ohi, charged with criminal assault on a 7-year old girl, will come up for hearing at 10 o'clock this morning. Police say he made the assault Monday night while the young girl's parents were at the district fair grounds.

Adultery charges against John Stern were continued to next Friday. The complaint was made by his wife, Frank Norano and Walter Wolff, charged with battery, will be given a preliminary hearing Monday.

Good music at Armory Hall-Dance tonight and every Wednesday and Saturday evening throughout the season—524 Broadway.

Sarkisian Makes Denial of Charges

A denial to the allegations set out in an article in the Fresno Republican, local attorney, brought by the Fresno County Bar association, was interpreted by the defendant yesterday at a hearing before Judge S. L. Strother. The action was set for trial on October 21.

The bar association charges Sarkisian with violating his oath as an attorney and of doing acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty and corruption. The association asks that he be disbarred and that his name be stricken from the roll of attorneys and that he be precluded from practicing law in any court in the state of California. The association charges that Sarkisian attempted to defraud one Charles B. Massman out of $2000 in a real estate deal.

Several Treated at Emergency Hospital

Several people received emergency hospital treatment yesterday. Eugene Walker, eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Walker, Route 2 residents, incurred left hand burns scalded with coffee shortly after 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Henry Scharton, 10, 2351 Rose street, received a fractured arm at 11:30 o'clock when he fell on a rock on the Kirk school grounds. Dr. C. M. Vanderburgh dressed the injury.

Silas Tablis, 73, Marysville resident was treated for minor injuries recently received in a Marysville grain fire. He was later sent to the Fresno county hospital according to the emergency report.

FRESNO TO ASK METHODISTS TO MEET HERE

Delegation Will Attend
Conference This Week
at Los Angeles

Few Changes in Pastors
Planned; Christian
City to Be Built

A large delegation of Fresno Methodists will leave here next Tuesday to attend the Southern California Conference of the M. E. Church, which opens in Los Angeles next Wednesday. The purpose of the delegation is to invite the next conference, which will meet in the latter part of September or the first part of October of 1922, to hold its sessions in Fresno.

Another important matter that will come before the conference is the planning for the establishment of a Christian City south of Santa Monica Canyon, where the Methodists have purchased a large acreage overlooking the old long wharf. At the conference the delegates are expected to prepare the plans for a summer resort, and a large additional sum will be expended. The regular institute for the southern district and the summer sessions of the district church organizations will be held there.

Also the Sierra Synagogue will be made into the official summer resort for central California and steps taken to make it an ideal place for summer camping and study.

There will probably be few changes in the pastorate of the San Joaquin Valley, as the church organizations in many cases have accepted the present pastors to come back. Also there are several church buildings—plans at Fresno, Hanford and a number of other churches in prospect for the year.

Among those who will attend are the following: First Church—Dr. P. H. Stevens, William McIntosh, C. E. Elliott, A. W. Gearhart, A. M. Drew, L. W. Nelson, R. O. Deaton, Dr. H. H. Hall, L. B. Mulford, Grace Church—Rev. J. E. Marshall and E. J. Chamberlain, Normal M. E.—Rev. J. Hunter Smith, Calvary—Rev. Harold Butler, Superintendent Harry W. White and Mrs. White are already at Los Angeles for the purpose of attending.

Three Informations Are Filed in Court

Informations accusing Harry M. Knight and Albert Nelson with driving auto without license were filed yesterday in the superior court by Deputy District Attorney J. G. Crighton. F. H. Skellern is charged with information filed by Deputy District Attorney Floyd Cowan with the grand jury of 1000 pounds of raisins and one-half ton of hay, the property of one J. M. Kingston. The theft is alleged to have been committed on September 12. Judge E. J. Strother will try the cases.

Fresno Rebekahs Have Three Booths

Fresno Lodge No. 158, Rebekahs, has featured three booths at the fair grounds during the week where they have sold popcorn, crisps and peanuts. The committee in charge consists of E. M. Bishop, Mr. Pearson, W. E. Parcell, George Barnhart, Guy Foster, George Morris, and Miss Margaret Nelson, Elvira Sisk, Nene, Nellie Haynes, Edith.

Among those who have been assisting at the various booths were: Mrs. James Morris, Alice Allen, Mae Burnett, Anderson, Shingelobeker, Fred Nelson, Ann Conn, Herbert, Ivy Martin, Nellie Watz, Young, Porter, Johnson, Jack Phillips, Buck, King, Mrs. Sperry, Leonard, Robinson, Matt, Lita, Clifford Watz, Hopkins and Mr. Earl and Mr. Cook. Messrs. Carter, Combs and Donahoe donated material for the booths and assisted.

Society

Last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. LeMaster, on Van Ness avenue, Miss Elaine Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Earl Taylor of Selma became the bride of Harry Floydstead, brother of Mrs. LeMaster. A canopy had been erected, covered with ferns, chrysanthemums and asters in dainty colorings, and it was there that the wedding party stood during the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. John Freeman Miller of the First Baptist church.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Blanche Jones sang, "O Promise Me," and soon afterwards the music drifted into the wedding march, as played by Mrs. C. L. Hamner.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of silver and carried a showy bouquet of white roses. Both the bride and groom were unattended.

Following the service and congratulations, the guests were ushered into the patio where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. During the evening a wedding supper was served on small tables, and the wedding cake was cut by the bride. The display of beautiful gifts was shown in a side room.

Late in the evening, the bride changed her wedding finery for a going away suit of blue tulle with which she wore a hat to match. She then left for a honeymoon journey to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Floydstead will return to Fresno to make their home on N. Mariposa street.

Among those who witnessed the ceremony and were present at the reception following were: Mrs. Earl Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. D. Gutzler, Mr. and Mrs. George Parrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. LeMaster, Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Barr, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Hamner, Messrs. Gray, Preston, A. K. Rogers, J. Rogers, of San Francisco; Misses Grace Stewart, Pauline Duncan, Pearl Brooks, Emma Collins, Blanche Jones, Ingeborg Curran, Mona Robinson, Dr. L. R. Packwood, Dr. Wilkinson, Messrs. Frank Smith, H. Collins, L. Gross, H. Eichenberger, L. H. Krueger, J. Nelson.

The bridegroom were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Gerald Thomas at her home on Pine street.

Methodists Direct Church Cafeteria

Members of the 11th division of the First Methodist church directed the church cafeteria at the fair grounds yesterday. Mrs. I. C. Koyes has been in complete charge, with various groups assisting each day. The following helped yesterday: Misses Grace Stewart, Pauline Duncan, Pearl Brooks, Emma Collins, Blanche Jones, Ingeborg Curran, Mona Robinson, Dr. L. R. Packwood, Dr. Wilkinson, Messrs. Frank Smith, H. Collins, L. Gross, H. Eichenberger, L. H. Krueger, J. Nelson.

Daschund and Sand Dog Win Prizes

A daschund and a sand dog of India were two dogs overlooked by mistake yesterday in the list of awards. The daschund, "Dutchy," is owned by H. H. Vilemora and "Moss," the sand dog is owned by George J. Frey of Venice.

The sand dog is a very unusual addition to the dog show in business with the exception of grey beisties between his legs and down his nose.

RED CROSS SHOP

The supply of children's clothing is exceptionally low just at this time at the Red Cross Shop and an appeal is made to the mothers who have clothing which their children have outgrown, to bring to the Red Cross or phone to them so that a truck may call for the same. Recently the Red Cross was asked to supply a family of eight children, but they were unable to do so, for lack of suitable garments.

The Red Cross Shop on Korn street will close today at noon, on account of the District Fair. Up to this time, the shop will be in charge of the Standing Committee as was yesterday when sales amounted to $25.75 were made.

HOLD PHYSICAL MEET OCT. 15

Fresno Association to Be Reorganized

On Saturday evening, October 15, there will be a reorganization meeting here at the Hughes hotel of the Fresno branch of the National Physical Educational Association, it was announced yesterday. This is to the physical world what the National Educational Association is to education in general. The national convention was held in Oakland this summer and many persons of the various physical educational lines of the San Joaquin Valley were present.

In forming a branch in Fresno, the idea will be to bring all those interested in the various lines of physical education from not only Fresno county, but Kern, Kings, Maricopa, Merced, San Joaquin and Stanislaus counties.

"There is often need of centralized efforts of allied interests along the lines of physical education for the betterment of all concerned," said L. L. Quigley, superintendent of playgrounds yesterday. "The advancement of physical education in general should receive stimulating interest as a result of such organization. All those connected with and interested in the work should be present as nearly as possible from every school, playground, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., private school and industrial and commercial organizations that promote any branch of physical education."

Superintendents of schools from the various counties mentioned have sent out circulars regarding the organization. An effort is being made to have Dr. Stolz, who is at the head of the physical educational department of the state of California, address the meeting. Other authorizations on various branches of physical educational work will, also, speak.

A program of entertainment has been arranged.

Christian Church Growing Rapidly

Rapid strides in spiritual growth are being made by the North Side Christian church this year. The church is increasing its Sunday congregations. Approximately 50 percent more people are going to the church services this year than last year. The church reports that, despite present unemployment conditions, the church is encountering little trouble in meeting its financial obligations. It is stated that all of $200 was recently paid for rental work. A heavy local budget has been met through voluntary contributions, and money is now in the church treasury. The church has already contributed $2,000 this year for foreign missionary work.

Recently a quartet of elders was selected to assist the minister and to have special oversight of the work in the various church departments. They are Messrs. Vail, Sheets, Thompson and Fortune.

Church trustees for the ensuing two years have been appointed. The board of trustees is composed of Messrs. Alcorn, Hall, Hatch, Morton, Raughton, Robinson, Phillips, Schulze, Sheets, Swartz, Tanner, and Whitaker.

10,000 Children Visit Playgrounds

It is estimated by R. C. Quigley, playground supervisor that over 10,000 children have visited the playgrounds at the fair during the week. Playground equipment includes swings, slides, bars, and sailor ladder. Mrs. Myrtle Price is in charge.

200 Entered In Baby Show

Fifty-three babies were examined yesterday afternoon at the baby show bringing the total number for the week up to 200. Examining doctors yesterday included: Bennett, Thompson, Wahrling and Burgett. Miss Pearl Burns acted as superintendent and was assisted by seven recording clerks.

Prizes and awards for the baby show are to be announced in tomorrow's Republican. Scores used during the week were from the Detroit Automatic Scale Company, and were loaned by J. E. Regan of Fresno. Each mother who entered a baby was given a booklet of suggestions on child welfare, similar to that approved by the American Medical association. In addition, a series of 16 baby welfare posters published by the American Medical association were on display.

ESTATE APPRAISED
The Charles Sorenson estate is valued at $58,033.56, according to an inventory and appraisal of the estate filed yesterday in the superior court by G. L. Aynesworth. Real property in the estate is valued at about $51,000, according to the report.

HAVE EDUCATED HORSE AT FAIR

"Buster" Is Performer
of Many Tricks

Buster, the Outlaw, is one of the outside attractions of the fair. Now Buster is an educated "horse," owned by E. Agnes of San Jose, and will answer correctly all questions and commands.

Buster has a distinct feeling for the American and against the "enemy" and when American is mentioned the horse is calm, but let his master say anything about the "enemy" and his heels go in the air. If Agnes asks the horse what the

Sues For Support of Two Children

Three dollars a month for the support and maintenance of two children is sought in a suit filed yesterday in the superior court by Attorney C. M. Ozias on the behalf of Mildred Anderson against Michael Todora. The plaintiff alleges that the children were born on May 15, 1917. She states that although she has often requested the defendant to care for the children, he has refused to do so.

RATIFICATION OF TREATIES LOOM

Agreement Hope Held By Lodge

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Ratification by the Senate in a fortnight of the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary loomed as a prospect tonight after Republican and Democratic leaders today had discussed a proposed unanimous consent agreement drafted by Senator Lodge, Republican leader, to take the final vote October 14 or 15. Both expressed hope of obtaining a formal order of the Senate tomorrow providing for such a program and all favoring the opinion that the agreement would be reached.

Announcement of the negotiations was made in the Senate late today by Senator Lodge and with the discussions showing evidence of success, the Republicans dropped their plan for a night session tonight. Senator Lodge said he had "every reasonable hope" of reaching an agreement with Senator Underwood, Democratic leader, also said an agreement had been "practically reached" and was ready for consummation tomorrow.

Involved in the program is a proposal that should any senator deem it desirable the treaties be laid aside temporarily. It is expected, however, that the treaties will be actually voted before the Senate meets next week, with the following week largely devoted to the treaties.

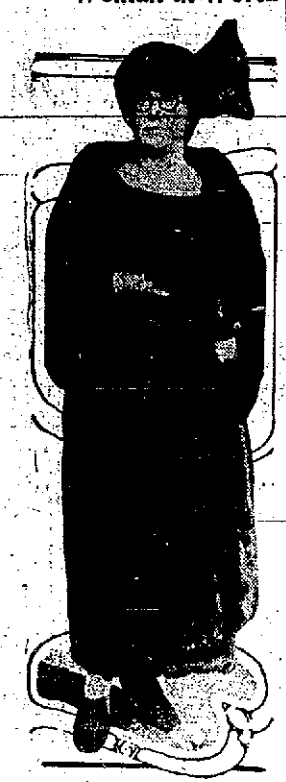

The movement for a voting agreement developed today in a conference of Democratic senators who unanimously against the Republican plan for night sessions and authorized overtures by Senator Underwood to the Republicans for voting agreement. The Democrats left each senator free to vote as he shall determine.

The only address on the treaties today was by Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, who opposed ratification because he said he believed they would drag the United States into the League of Nations and European entanglements.

AIR CHAMPION READY TO FLY

Tells of Flight Which Broke Record

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Lieutenant J. A. MacReady, holder of the world's flying height crown, formerly held by Major R. J. Schroeder, was ready for another flight today if called on to make it.

Like Major Schroeder in his record flight in which he fell six miles, Lieutenant MacReady did not suffer any ill effects in his 10,000 foot trip Wednesday.

Invention of new appliances for battling the air should get the credit, MacReady said today.

"When I started, I had no intention of trying for a record. When I reached 10,000 feet, my plane—a La Perre—was working so perfectly and atmospheric conditions were so good, I decided to go a little higher.

"Even then I had no thought of a record."

"At a height of about 25,000 feet my

Man Testifies Against Companion

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Sept. 28.—Jerk McGill, convicted last week and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of John D. Kopke, a confederator, on June 2, testified today as a witness for the prosecution in the trial of Walter Lovelace, who is charged with being an accessory to the crime. McGill said Lovelace plotted the robbery of Kopke for his jewelry, valued at $12,000. "Mada Trost and Anita Dica, companions of McGill and Lovelace, testified that after the crime they accompanied the men on visits to various cities of the state.

After the conclusion of their testimony the prosecution rested.

Additional data on the Schroeder anti-trade winds said to blow from east to west at 200 miles an hour was not discovered by Lieutenant MacReady.

"The higher I went, the colder it got and I did not notice a rise in temperature at 35,000 feet," he said.

Woman Is Found Dead In Closet

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Detectives today were trying to trace a couple known as Mr. and Mrs. Boulanger, who, it is believed, lived for several days, unwittingly, in a room where the body of a young woman friend—murdered—had been stored.

The body, packed away in newspapers, was found last night in an unused closet of a lodging house room the Boulangers had occupied. A cloth bag had been tied into the woman's mouth with a white stocking. The date of one of the newspapers, September 21, is believed to fix the date of the murder. The Boulangers did not quit the room until last Monday—four days later. Other lodgers said they thought the Boulangers had gone to Montreal.

The murdered woman was known at the lodging house only as "Mrs. Fay." The proprietor told the police "Mr. Fay" left the house last Thursday, saying "Mrs. Fay" had fallen ill and he had removed her to a hospital. He is being sought in connection with her death.

Sacramento Man Is Given Second Burial

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29.—Arrangements were being made here today for the second funeral of James O'Connor, who died early this week at a local hospital. O'Connor's body was buried yesterday by mistake through a confusion of burial permits in which the body of Frank Cleveland, another hospital patient, was involved.

Cleveland had no money or friends and his body was to have been interred in the county plot. Instead, the body of O'Connor was taken to the grave by the undertaker. Discovery of the mistake led to exhumation of O'Connor's corpse and decision to hold another funeral service.

Nine Drivers Contest Today In San Joaquin Valley Classic

DISTRICT FAIR WILL CLOSE ITS DOORS TONIGHT

100,000 Are Expected to View Displays in Week

Governor Stephens Will Be Here For Races Today

When the lights are dimmed tonight closing the fifteenth annual Fresno District Fair, nearly 100,000 people will have been given some enlightenment of the reasons why the San Joaquin Valley is called the Garden of the Sun.

Whether or not the Fresno District Fair will surpass the state fair next year for the honor of being "the best in the state," is to be seen. Many who have seen both fairs declare that this year's carnival has been the greatest ever held in the valley and in many ways surpasses the state fair.

Today is Fresno day at the fair and 50,000 citizens of the community are planning to attend the big attractions that the day will hold forth. It is the annual day when all Fresnoans are expected to make their annual visit to the shrine of the "Garden of Plenty."

It is Governor's Day and the state executive, Governor William D. Stephens will be present. Despite his wife's illness in San Francisco, the Governor is making a flying trip to the city and is expected to arrive here at noon time for luncheon which will be given at the home of Wylie M. Giffen. Governor Stephens and Alden Anderson who is accompanying him, will be the guests of Sam G. "Doc" Mortland during the visit to Fresno.

Valley People Coming. It is San Joaquin Valley Day also and from the length and breadth of the valley thousands are flocking "Fresno-wards." From Bakersfield on the south to Stockton on the north, the valley citizens are eagerly awaiting the start of the San Joaquin Valley automobile national championship which will be staged on the Fresno Speedway, this afternoon.

Furthermore it will be Progressive Business Men's Day and the members of the Fresno club will hold their first outing at the grounds. A special section of the grandstand has been reserved for them. The club men have arranged a program of boxing, novel contests for the day to come with the boys.

Hundreds of prominent persons from the entire state and the United States are here for the races included.

Earthquake Again Shakes Elsinore

SALT LAKE, Sept. 30.—Reports received from Elsinore, one of the most seismically active spots in the southern part of Utah, declare that a severe earthquake, reported as another tremor at 1:30 this morning. The latest shock rendered more extensive the damage done yesterday by the series of quakes. Practically every building in the little town was damaged and made untenable. According to the latest reports the damage to the Elsinore, Richfield and Monticello was stated to be nearly $100,000. No violent tremors were reported, but great sections of rock weighing thousands of tons tumbled down from cliffs in nearby canyons. Twelve years ago the same section suffered heavy property loss from a series of quakes.

Labor Council to Start Its Dances

Announcement was made yesterday by the Labor Council, in charge, that the Labor Council winter season dances would begin tonight at the civic auditorium. Each Saturday evening during the winter months a dance and social good time is presented by the committee for the entertainment of labor members and their friends. The services of an eight piece orchestra has been secured and the floor placed in first class condition. Handsome prizes are awarded at each dance. The proceeds from the series of entertainments are placed in the labor organization funds.

SAYS BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN WEST BETTER

G. W. Luce, S. P. Freight Traffic Manager, Visits Here

EXPECTS SOIL PRODUCTS WILL BRING MORE PROSPERITY

Declaration that conditions in the field of business are "growing better and that next spring will see a return to the oft-heralded 'normalcy'" was made yesterday by G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific lines who spent the day in this city on an inspection tour.

Luce has been spending the last few days in the San Joaquin valley feeling the pulse of the business and agricultural world so that he may be able to gauge the necessities for transportation accordingly. He spent the day here yesterday conferring with men who are assisting in the development of this inland empire and last night expressed

NEW FRANCHISE PREPARED BY CITY ATTORNEY

Gives Traction Company Rights on Streets For 50 Years

PROVISION FOR PAVING BETWEEN TRACKS IS MADE

The text of a street railway franchise, representing the views of the city commission as distinguished from the franchise recently proposed by the Fresno Traction Company, has been completed by City Attorney Johnston and placed in the hands of the city commission. The franchise as drawn by the city attorney gives the traction company a franchise right for a period of 50 years, against the terms of the company's proposal, which called for an indeterminate franchise.

In the city's draft, the reserve account of $50,000 as proposed by the company is entirely eliminated, together with the sliding scale. It is also provided that no profits shall be

Information For Those Who Attend Race

Gates of the Fresno District Fair will open this morning at 9 o'clock for automobiles desiring parking spaces inside the fairgrounds. Autos may be parked inside the speedway anytime after 1 o'clock and left there until the race begins. The nine drivers will be started on their way promptly at 3 o'clock. Fred J. Wagner, official starter, announced late last night.

An admission price of $1.10 will be charged for all automobiles parking within the speedway. In addition the general admission price of $1.10 will be charged each occupant of the machine. General admission tickets only entitle the holders to standing room. Admission to the grandstand will be $2.30. These prices include war tax.

All boxes have been sold out. It was announced by the managers of the race. Tickets tomorrow will be on sale at the fair grounds only.

Automobiles going to the grounds will make best time by going over Tulare street to R street, then over R street to Ventura street and out Ventura street to the fair grounds. Auto entrances are on Maple and Butler Avenues. The traction track car going out Tulare street and Huntington Boulevard will handle visitors.

EXPECT GRIT AND NERVE TO DETERMINE WINNER OF 150-MILE SPEEDWAY RACE

Drivers Declare Machines Are in Perfect Condition For Dash; Starter Drops Flag at 3:00 o'Clock This Afternoon

Nine of the world's fastest racing drivers will get under headway on the Fresno speedway at 3 o'clock this afternoon when Fred J. Wagner, official starter, gives the signal that will begin the 150-mile grind of the third annual San Joaquin Valley racing classic. Every driver declared last night that his car was in perfect mechanical condition and is anxious to begin the 150-mile battle of speed, grit and nerve.

Cooper's Entry Will Be Watched

That the race will be a thriller from the start to finish is the opinion expressed by every racing expert who watched the qualification trials yesterday morning. All nine machines are almost equally matched for speed, and not a one of the drivers will enjoy any great superiority as far as the element of the race is concerned.

Will Watch Cooper

If there is any popular favorite in the race, it is Earl Cooper, former cross country racer, and dirt track champion, who decided to enter the race late Thursday evening after three years of retirement from the racing game. Cooper is an old timer and has been turning some of the fastest laps in practice the past two days. Experts figure that he may come back and beat some of the younger drivers out of the big prize money.

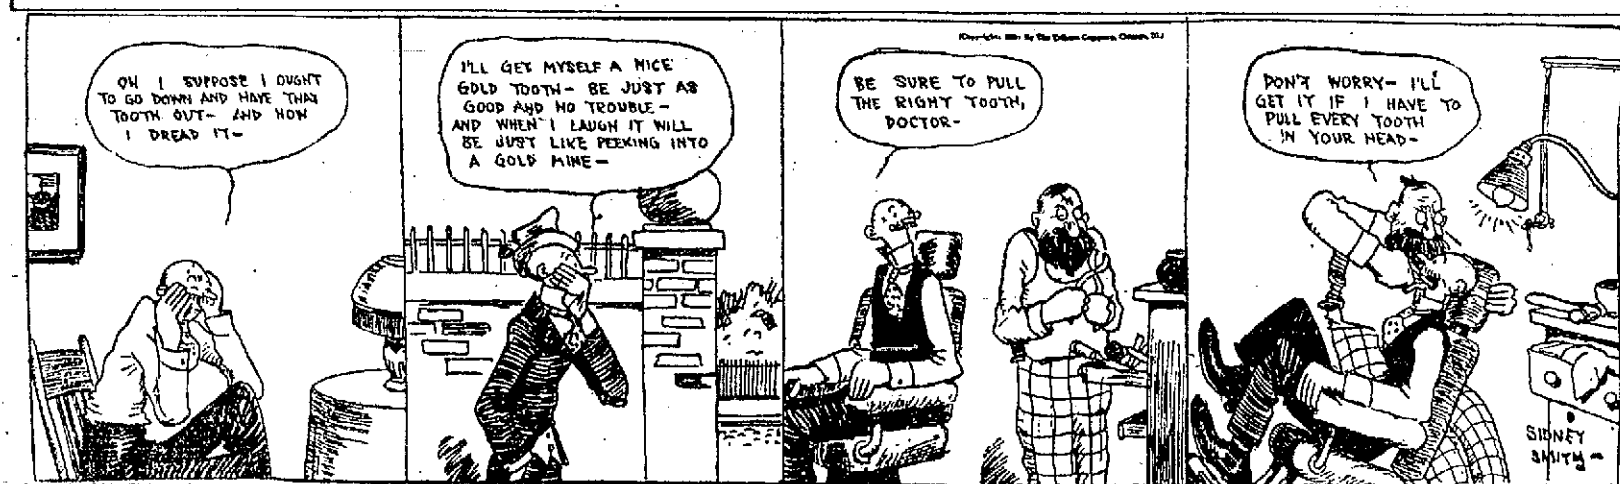

Eddie Hearne, winner of the last Coast race, and holder of the world's speedway record of 113 miles an hour, will be one of the most formidable drivers on the speedway this afternoon. Hearne's car is a new one and is reported to be mechanically perfect. He drove it at the first Uniontown race this year, and will again carry away the laurels should he cross the finish first this afternoon. He is considered one of the steadiest drivers in speedway racing.

Watch Valley Driver. Frank Elliott of Hanford, one of the latest drivers to enter racing, will be watched closely tomorrow by the hundreds of San Joaquin Valley fans who are personally acquainted with his ability as a driver.

Jimmy Murphy of San Francisco, is the sensational winner of the Grand Prix at Le Mans, France, where

HERROLD WINS AD CLUB RACE IN 1904 REO

Machines of Vintage of Years Ago Contest
in "Classic"

La Senay Takes Second in Oldsmobile of

Although not the speediest race ever contested, the 3-mile First Annual Ad Club Classic contested in by old automobiles, proved to be one of the biggest successes ever witnessed in Fresno. Held on the half mile dirt track used for running races, five cars none of which were newer than a 1900 model lined up and got away to a flying start.

The "classic," which featured the fifth day of the Fresno District Fair yesterday, was won by George E. Herrold, who made the five miles in the "fast time" of 14 minutes 31.4 seconds. The car he drove was a 1 cylinder Reo, 1904 model. The car made the entire trip without a single mishap. It won handsomely, leaving its nearest competitor, Melvin Fray, who drove a 1904 Oldsmobile, in the dust.

The car is known as "The Old Aviator," and is owned by George Herrold of Fresno.

Trent La Senay, driving an Oldsmobile, won second place. His time was 16 minutes and 47.2 seconds. La Senay had as his mechanic John W. Glynn. The machine was a 1 cylinder affair and was an 1899 model.

Third place went to the famous old Winton, model of 1900. It was driven by its original owner, E. H. Wetman of Visalia. The car was the first to make the trip between Los Angeles and San Diego. Waterman was a lap behind La Senay. E. B. Christie was the mechanic.

Fourth place was won by A. C. Bradley, who was driving a 1906 3-cylinder Maxwell. Eddie Heine rode as mechanic. The car was the lead until it lost the drive of the race when a time trouble forced it to stop. Although Heine's speed demon of the race track, was present the trouble could not be found, and the car was released for fourth place. Bradley owned and drove the car.

Fifth place was given to a 1908 Buick driven by A. W. Follows, owned by George Swanson. The driver, acting as mechanic. The car likewise broke down and could not finish the race. It was the fastest car in the track until the mishap. The car was a 1908 model with two cylinders.

The trophy prize was won by the "Sears Roebuck," entered by Jack Holmes, driven by George Brown and with George Ide acting as mechanic. The car, known as "The Nifty Day," proceeded to go a quarter of a lap, take a minute rest, start again and repeat until three or four miles were completed. The race had been won in the meantime, however.

A silver trophy was given the winner, and the prize money was divided among the participants. Officials of the national championship race, of today, acted as officials and included Starter Fred Wagner of New York, Referee L. A. Nares of Fresno, and Eddie Wetman of Fresno, who had charge of the handicapping and technical committee.

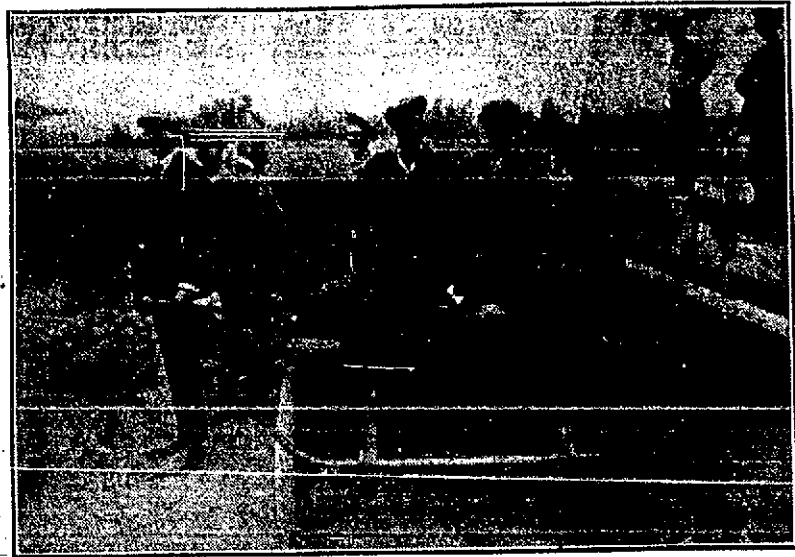

Six thousand persons jammed the grandstands and box seats yesterday to witness the best program of the week. The persons remained until the last event was over and cheered the various persons supplying the thrills after thrill above the speedway formed a diversion for the crowd. The two aviators with splendid machines performed every stunt known, from an immediate turn to a loop the loop.

Ad Club Has Section. The Ad Club members were the guests of the management and a special section in the grandstand was roped off for their benefit. A special parade was formed downtown in the morning and the old cars entered in the race together with the more modern cars of the members participated.

Upon arriving at the fair grounds, the Ad men found a luncheon awaiting them. At the luncheon, entertainment was provided by the fair officials for their amusement. The club men were supplied with fancy hats arranged by Bernice Rasmussen and hats were worn by the members through the day and night.

As usual the day went off without a hitch. It was Colton Kingsburg, Riverdale, San Joaquin, Caruthers and Raisin City Day. Thousands from the various cities were present.

George E. Herrold, his mechanic Melvin Fray and the 1904 Reo which he drove to victory yesterday in the first annual Ad Club old car classic race held in conjunction with the Fresno District Fair

CONTINUE HEARING

Hearing on an order to show cause why an injunction should not be issued against the raisin crop of E. Nalliar in a suit brought by the California Associated Raisin Company was continued yesterday until October 7 by Judge J. E. Woolley.

The suit was brought by the raisin company to secure the delivery of the crop to them by Nalliar who, it was stated, threatened to deliver the raisins to other parties than the company to whom he was under contract to sell.

and among the many features at the fair enjoyed was the Kingsburg band which supplied the music for the day between 1 and 5 o'clock.

It is estimated that nearly twenty thousand persons were present during the day, the record crowd of the week.

THE WORLD'S BIGGEST JOB—AND ITS SCOPE

Every year the Presidency of the United States grows more important, until now it is recognized as the biggest job in the world. Yet few people realize that the president is not chosen by a majority vote and that several of our presidents have not been the most popular choice of all the people. This fact is clearly discussed in the story of the Presidency, one of the series of articles on Our Government, which we are issuing monthly.

DISCUSS NEW FARM SCHEME

Plan To Settle 100,000 Tillers

SYDNEY, Sept. 26.—Australia are interestingly discussing a scheme proposed by Sir Joseph Chamberlain, Australian minister, and his colleagues, for the settling of 100,000 English tillers of the soil upon 1,000,000 acres in Australia, through the creation of a fund of $150,000,000 to be raised in equal proportion by Australia and Great Britain.

It is argued that the scheme would permit the emigration to Australia of a large number of the unemployed service men of the kingdom to some of the richest land in the world, which as yet has never felt plowshare.

Sir Joseph stressed the value to Great Britain of the man power brought to Australia by the emigration. He pointed out that it would be better for the United Kingdom to support such a scheme than to build warships in contemplation of Australia's danger, should the Pacific become a war zone.

Australian government immigration officials in London lauded the scheme, pointing out that it was similar to a $100,000,000 plan submitted by Senator Chamberlain for settlement of the colonies. Immigration conference in January and February. It is said a question of capital, they pulled out. It is interesting to note the connection that Sir Joseph Chamberlain, a Japanese newspaperman making a tour of Australia, suggested in an interview that it might be advisable to permit a limited number of Japanese to settle in Australia, where they could grow tropical fruits, the region being in the tropical zone. The farmers could be brought out on a 50-year agreement. It was made good at the end of the period they could have their leases renewed. In that way, he said, it would be possible to keep what the natives were, capable of making a good type of immigrant, the Japanese made.

NEW FRANCHISE IS PREPARED

City Attorney Frames Document

paid the city, the theory of this being that all profits above a legitimate return to the company should be used toward reducing taxes.

According to the city attorney, the franchise company under this franchise must pave Olive avenue, under the new franchise, he explained that the street car company does not pay for the initial cost of paving between its tracks and a foot on either side, but it must pay for the maintenance of this portion of the street paving.

Requires Paving. "The general clause requires the company to do paving," said Johnston, "but the company may be excused from paving as a condition to this franchise, if before the franchise takes effect the company shall have paved the portions of streets required under the present charter, which are now in process of being paved, or have been paved. The company may be excused from future paving as a condition of the continuance of the franchise, but it is required by any law now existing or hereafter enacted."

The city under the new draft has the right after one year to terminate the franchise upon six months' notice and take over the property upon a valuation to be fixed by the railroad commission.

Fixed Valuation. "The city shall be fixed by the railroad commission, and the company is required to maintain its accounts open at all reasonable times to inspection by the city commissioners."

The city commission may upon an affirmative vote of four of its members declare an extension of service necessary. If the failure of the company to make such an extension the matter may be submitted to the railroad commission.

It is expressly provided that the franchise, which is referred to as a "renewable franchise," may be terminated and the city acquire the property by purchase at any time after ten years from the adoption of the ordinance upon six months' notice to the company, at a physical valuation to be agreed upon by the city and the company.

In the event of disagreement, the railroad commission shall fix the valuation, and it is provided that in the event of decision by the city to purchase, the railroad company shall make an appraisal, and valuation.

Bonded Indebtedness. "The railroad commission shall have the right, upon demand of the city, to apportion the bonded indebtedness of the traction company lines as between properties with and without the city. If the valuation within the city exceeds the bonded debt, the city may assume the bonded debt as part of the purchase price and pay the difference in cash."

The city within one year after the valuation is fixed by the railroad commission must carry out the terms of the sale agreement.

The proposed franchise ordinance as drawn by the city attorney covers fourteen pages of typewritten copy. In addition to the special features covered, as outlined, the ordinance contains all the customary provisions as to operation of a street car line under a city franchise.

The terms of the franchise, it is very likely, will be taken up at a special meeting of the city commission before it is formally submitted to the traction company.

Dancing, Saturday night, Auditorium—Admission.

Suspend Sentence on Burglary Charge

John Vierwinden, who pleaded guilty to charges of grand larceny and burglary, was yesterday given a suspended sentence of two years by Judge S. L. Strother.

Vierwinden will be required to report monthly to the probation officer and to conduct himself as a law-abiding citizen. He must also furnish a $250 bond. Assistant District Attorney H. J. Carling prosecuted the case.

ASKS PROBATION. William Hoyer yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny at his arraignment before Judge J. E. Woolley and entered a request for probation. The offense was committed on August 21, October 11 was set to hear the report of the probation officer. Assistant District Attorney Carling prosecuted the action and O. C. Hanson represented the defendant.

CONDITIONS IN WEST BETTER

business is pleased with the growth seen on every side and the apparent prosperity of the San Joaquin valley.

While living has ceased to have the same appeal that it did during the years of the war and prices have dropped, the turnover is better according to Luce. While the amount of sales did not reach the same amount that it did previously, smaller sales made opportunity for the merchant the opportunity which he seeks to turn his stocks over rapidly, according to the railroad executive.

Conditions Best in West. Especially is the improved business condition manifest in the western states and California, says Mr. Luce, whose duty it is to travel each month in the interests of the company which he serves. While there is not the plentiful money either in east or west which there was a short time ago, the business condition of the country has been improved, the railroad man says, and consequently more is done with a smaller amount of capital. The business depression which made its appearance in the east as a natural result of after war conditions, has not made itself apparent in the same extent in the western states, he believes, and his prediction that normal times would be seen with the coming of spring is based on the assumption that California will escape the sub of depression.

"I am not an optimist," said Mr. Luce yesterday, "but I believe that next spring will see a return to normal business conditions."

Growth of population in the western states with an over-increasing ratio as one faces westward from Chicago was also noted by the railroad executive as indicative of the future of the western part of this country. While the general average for the extreme western states runs in the neighborhood of 25 per cent for 1920 over the figures for 1919, the increase in the western states of America is even greater. Consequently, the time which the railroad executive represents, in making special arrangements for an increase in traffic which can hardly be estimated at the present time.

Chance for Great Empire. California and the San Joaquin valley have a chance to become an empire, according to Luce, who states that the fact that California

Plea For Alimony Is Under Advisement

Judge J. E. Woolley yesterday took under advisement the application of Eva Westfall Wallace for $220 a month alimony from Duncan Wallace, former Fresno pastor; pending the settlement of a divorce action brought by Mrs. Wallace. The divorce action charges Wallace with extreme cruelty, particularly toward five children. The action was begun in Oakland, but was transferred to Fresno on a change of venue. Lindsay South represents the plaintiff and Julius Hansen the defendant.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY Pete Corbell, charged with lewd conduct, yesterday pleaded not guilty at his arraignment before Judge S. L. Strother. He waived the statutory time for trial and the case was continued indefinitely. Strother P. Wallston represented the defendant in the case and Assistant District Attorney H. J. Carling, the prosecutor.

resorts mainly to the soil for her industries and endeavors, makes it founded upon stable products where stable prices govern and the business of depression has little access. Great improvement in the agricultural methods of the valley were commented upon and also endeavors to realize the latent wealth which lies hidden in the earth. Mr. Luce stated that he has been over the lines of his road with the exception of Arizona and is going north when he has made his survey of conditions in the valley. He was accompanied yesterday in his inspection trip by H. E. Ish, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific offices in Fresno.

DRIVERS TAKE TRACK TODAY

Nine Are Entered In Classic Race

he gained international fame as a racing driver, Murphy won the fair classic here last year and is well known among Fresno racing fans.

Eddie Miller, driving a DuPont, will appear on the Fresno speedway this afternoon for the first time. He has been practicing all week, getting accustomed to the local sander, and should be able to push his way to the front at the finish today.

Alton Soules is considered the dare devil of today's entrants and can be expected to lead the field for the first fifty miles at least. If his car can stand the pace he puts it through he will be one of the most dangerous contenders for first place in today's race.

Championship at Stake. Jerry Wendlerlich, the ninth entrant in the race this afternoon has never won any important first place but placed within the money this year at both Indianapolis and Cotati. He is looked upon as a possible dark horse.

Eddie Meyer Jr. was unable to get his DuPont Special to travel around the track fast enough yesterday but placed within the money this year at both Indianapolis and Cotati. A good deal of interest is being attached to the outcome of today's race due to the fact that it may determine the national championship for 1921. At present Tom Milton leads the field in point standing, having 1710 points to his credit. His only close competitor is Roscoe Scurie who is chalked down for 1615. If either driver wins today the lead given him will be almost enough to make this year's championship a sure bet for him.

A total of 675 points toward the national standing will be divided tomorrow as follows:

First, 300; second, 160; third, 90; fourth, 50; fifth, 30; sixth, 20; seventh, 15; eighth, 10.

The point standing of the drivers as they enter the race today stands at the following figures. Milton, 1710; Scurie, 1615; Heame, 810; Murphy, 342; Miller, 325; Soules, 50; Wendlerlich, 15; Elliott, 10; Cooper, 6.

A purse of $15,000 will be divided among the first eight drivers to cross the line in the race tomorrow. The division is as follows: First, $5,000; second, $3,000; third, $1,500; fourth, $1,000; fifth, $1,000; sixth, $1,000; seventh, $1,000; eighth, $500.

The list of officials who will preside at the race tomorrow was announced today as follows: Governor William D. Stephens, honorary referee; L. A. Nares of Fresno, referee; Frank Warner of New York, starter; Fred Warner of Los Angeles, timer; Les Manning of Oakland, pit manager; Frank Hood of Fresno, clerk of course; Eddie Waterson of Fresno, chief of technical committee; J. Fred England of Fresno, chief scorer.

Notice to Hunters and Trespassers. Hunting or trespassing on the Al McNeil property is absolutely not permitted. Violators will be prosecuted. Al McNeil.

SET DATE FOR TRIAL. Judge J. E. Woolley will preside at the trial on November 23 of Ray Bowers, charged by an information filed in the superior court with an attempt to pass a fictitious check. Bowers, at his arraignment yesterday pleaded not guilty to the offense and waived the statutory time of 60 days for trial. Assistant District Attorney Carling will prosecute and Walter Sorenson will represent the defendant at the trial.
